

Scholarship Program : Terms & Conditions

1. INTRODUCTION

The Qur'an was revealed with linguistic rules applied to it. It is therefore incumbent upon the Muslim to observe these rules so that the Qur'an is recited in the way it was revealed. Linguistically, the word Tajweed means 'proficiency' or 'doing something well'. In the context of the Qur'an, it refers to giving every letter of the Qur'an its due right upon recitation whilst observing the applicable rules. The Qur'an is the book of Allah, with every word originating from the Exalted One. Every Muslim should strive for excellence in their recitation, observing the correct pronunciation, rulings and characteristics of every letter without any exaggeration or deficiency.

It is on this premise that an online Qur'an program was born in Tanzeel. The word "Tanzeel" in the Arabic language describes something that has been "sent down", that was "revealed". The Qur'an was sent down as a source of guidance, a blessing, a mercy, a healing to the Believer. Tanzeel intends to connect Muslims back to the source, the Creator, through the bounty of the Qur'an. One of the primary objectives of Tanzeel is to provide high quality professional online classes that are widely accessible by all.

With this in mind, scholarships or study assistance is made available for qualifying students to further their studies in the recitation and/or memorization of the Qur'an, as outlined in these terms & conditions.
